

Let's build our team

We each get a character. Together, we get a world to belong to. Start by sharing ideas in pairs, then bring them to the group. No drawing skills needed.

Our chosen world: _____

1. What brings our team together?

Choose two or three things you want the team to stand for. Turn them into a short shared mission.

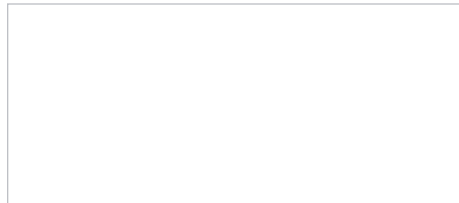

2. What should we call ourselves?

Collect a few ideas, combine your favorites, and check everyone is comfortable with the final name.

Our chosen team name: _____

3. What could our shared emblem be?

Choose one or two simple shapes that express your shared idea. Describe or sketch them together.

What our emblem means:

4. What connects the look of our team?

Choose two or three team colors and a mood: cozy, adventurous, bright, mysterious, playful... Each character can still have their own colors and personality.

5. What is one adventure we could go on together?

A shared mission for the reveal. How could each character help in their own way?

Recorder: _____ Artwork helper: _____

The helper will turn our ideas into a logo for us to review together.
