

Meet your ponysona

Imagine yourself in a world of magical ponies, each with their own talents, interests and adventures. Short answers, skipped questions and "suggest something" are welcome. No drawing skills or familiarity with this world needed.

Your organizer will use your chosen answers with an AI art tool and reveal the artwork at the next meeting. Share only what you want included. You can also pass on the activity.

Our team: _____

Use the team name from the separate group name-and-logo activity; leave blank if undecided.

1. Your real name, exactly as it should appear

A first name is enough. We will use this name on your character artwork.

2. What kind of pony would you be?

Earth pony (no horn or wings), unicorn, pegasus, winged unicorn... or your own idea.

3. What role would you have in this world?

A guide, maker, caretaker, explorer or entertainer? Your role can reflect work, life outside work, or something you would love to be.

4. What is your special talent or power?

What can you do, and how does it help? It can be practical, magical or wonderfully silly.

5. What are you like?

A few personality words, a habit or a little quirk that makes the character feel like you.

Turn over to choose your look, symbol and world.

Make it feel like you

Your real name (same as page 1): _____

6. What do you love?

Choose two or three hobbies, favorite things or meaningful objects. Life outside work counts.

7. What would your pony look like?

Your character doesn't have to look like you to feel like you. Choose any colors, shapes and details.

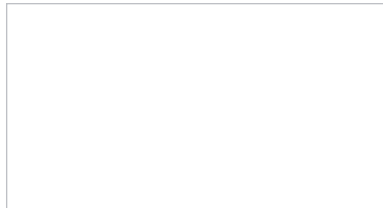

Coat color / markings: _____

Mane / tail colors / style: _____

Clothing / accessories: _____

8. What is your personal symbol?

A small mark on your pony's flank can represent a talent, value or interest. Describe it, sketch it, or ask for ideas. This is your own symbol, separate from the shared team logo.

Describe it / what it means:

9. Where would we find you, and what are you doing?

A cozy workshop, mountain trail, music stage, enchanted library, garden... or your own idea.

10. Any finishing touches or things to leave out?

Optional: a companion, favorite snack, treasured object, must-have detail or anything to avoid.

We will reveal our characters together. You can ask for changes.
